Riis Park Beach Bazaar successfully reimagines the beach experience at Jacob Riis Park's historic and pristine oceanfront. Featuring diverse and exciting events, concerts and activities paired with mouth-watering food and beverage options, Riis Park Beach Bazaar has become one of New York City's favorite beach destinations. The 2016 season will see a return of our critically acclaimed free weekend concert series as well as many additional attractions and events. We will also be bringing back our most popular summer foodie vendors, along with some new guaranteed crowd pleasers.
